

19th and 20th of March 2026 Juchowo, Poland

The Associative Economy of Biodynamic Practices:

THE SECOND SEMINAR ON COLLABORATIVE SUSTAINABILITY

Program Seminarium

Thursday, 19.03.2026:

Until 15:30	Arrival
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 15:00	Practical Workshop (incl. Farm Tour)
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 - 15:45	Beginning of the seminar
15:45 - 16:30	Keynote by Uli Hurter (Goetheanum): Associative economy as underestimated core element of biodynamic agriculture
16:30 - 18:00	Discussion 1: Accounting from a Practice Perspective Michał Gazdecki (Poznan University of Life Science): "Does Financial Strength Shape Farmers' Behavioral Orientation in Business Relationships" Corinna Nieland (Forschungsring e.V.): "Development-oriented Recognition procedure as an alternative to infringement-oriented controls?"
18:00 - 19:00	Dinner
19:00 - 21:00	Get-together

Friday, 20.03.2026:

08:30 - 10:00	Discussion 2: Cooperatives along the value chain Kristina Gruber (JLU Gießen): "Local and organic value chains in German cooperative grocery stores: Perspectives from cooperatives, suppliers and members." Katarzyna Maciąg (Kooperatywa Dobrze): "A unique Polish model of the "Dobrze" cooperative: motivations and barriers to the creation and scaling of food cooperatives in Poland"
10:00 - 10:30	Break
10:30 - 12:00	Discussion 3: Theory behind change Lara Herrlich (JLU Gießen): "Associative economy in the context of the diverse economies concept" Angela Baldini (Presencing Institute) and Georg Neubauer (Biörn e.V.): "Attention, intention, agency - Round tables for cultivating the social soil"
12:00 - 12:30	Break
12:30 - 13:30	Conclusion and Outlook
13:30 - 14:30	Lunch